

2012 NZSKI SEASON PASSES

For Coronet Peak, Mt Hutt and The Remarkables

Season passes offer fantastic value and are the best way to get onto the snow if you plan to do a lot of skiing or riding in 2012.

Special offer to 2010 and 2011 season pass holders

We are excited to be adding more functionality to mypass for 2012 by way of incorporating a stored value facility to the mypass card. If you had a qualifying NZSki season pass in 2010 or 2011 and purchase a 2012 season pass we will be loading a credit to your 2012 mypass card so you can be the first to experience this great new facility. Use your credit to purchase ski product for friends or spend it in the café's and restaurants on the mountains. More detail on this offer can be found on the web site www.nzski.com.

How to purchase

Purchase online at www.nzski.com from 16 February 2012 to receive the best prices (credit card sales only). TIME PAYMENT OPTION AVAILABLE WITH EARLY BIRD ONLINE PURCHASES ONLY.

Or you can simply print this application form, fill it out and either freepost, fax or visit us with payment – please note that any application submitted by post, fax or in person will incur a $20 administration fee.

2012 TERMS & CONDITIONS

The following Terms & Conditions apply to your NZSki Pass, Queenstown Pass, The Remarkables Pass, Mt Hutt Pass or Mt Hutt Midweek Pass as indicated within the text.

The operating season of the NZSki Limited (NZSki) areas is subject to snow, weather and market conditions and the season may be longer or shorter than publicised. NZSki makes no warrant as to the length of season, number of lifts operating at any time or to the operation or otherwise of an area on any particular day.

Reference to Season Pass, pass or mypass refers to the plastic RFID card and the products that are loaded against the individual that the RFID card identifies with in the NZSki database.

Purchase of a pass implies acceptance of the following Terms & Conditions:

PART A – APPLIES TO ALL PASS HOLDERS, 2012

- Season Passes are non-refundable under any circumstances unless the Injury/Medical cover option has been purchased.
- Injury/Medical cover provides for full or partial refund of the Season Pass where; an injury or medical condition precludes or significantly limits ability to use the pass.
All applications for refund must be made by completing the Injury/Medical Cover Refund Form and supported with a doctor's certificate or other evidence acceptable to NZSki. NZSki reserves the right to obtain independent medical advice to validate any claim. The value of refunds will be calculated based on the use of the pass according to the table below and in conjunction with the following expiry dates. There will be no refunds after 6 weeks from the pass holders first day of pass use. There will be no refunds after 31 August 2012.
Refunds extend to the value of the pass type purchased only and do not cover any ancillary or other associated costs. The Injury/Medical cover add-on is regarded as an ancillary cost.
Refunds will be made to the credit card used to purchase the pass and the pass will be cancelled.

0 days (pass not used) 100%
1 day – 87.5% refund	5 days – 37.5% refund
2 days – 75% refund	6 days – 25% refund
3 days – 62.5% refund	7 days – 12.5% refund
4 days – 50% refund	8+ days – no refund
- Applications for or issued Season Passes are not transferable. The pass may only be used by the person whose name it bears and photograph it matches in NZSki's records. Transferring or re-selling your Season Pass is an offence and will result in penalties including loss of access to ski area facilities and possible prosecution.
- If you lose your pass or it is stolen please report it immediately on 0800 NZSKIPASS (0800 697 547) so we can suspend/cancel it. An administration fee will apply to replace your pass.
- NZSki reserves the right to decline to reissue the pass or to issue you with passes in the future if a third party is found using your pass without its loss recorded in our system.
- Your pass cannot be used for commercial purposes without the prior approval of NZSki Ltd.
- Photo identification will be required on collection of your pass/card or when updating your photograph.
- All pass holders must abide by the ski area user responsibility code. Misconduct will result in cancellation or suspension of the pass with no refund. Misconduct includes, but is not limited to, reckless or dangerous skiing or riding, excessive speed within a slow or learning zone, disregard for closed areas, unsociable behaviour, skiing or riding under the influence of alcohol or drugs, supply of incorrect information or breach of the conditions as per the Snow Responsibility Code available at www.nzski.com.
- All pass holders must abide by all signs and instructions when driving on ski area access roads. Failure to abide by signs and instructions or reckless and dangerous driving will result in cancellation or suspension of the pass with no refund.
- You must carry your pass with you at all times when skiing or riding.
- Use of any season pass is subject to the Terms & Conditions of the specific ski area at which you are using the pass.

PART B – SPECIFIC TO SEASON PASS TYPES, 2012

- The NZSki Pass provides the holder with unlimited skiing and riding at Coronet Peak, Mt Hutt and The Remarkables for the 2012 season during standard operating hours of 9am – 4pm, plus Night Skiing at Coronet Peak on Friday and Saturday nights from 4pm – 9pm when available.
- The Queenstown Pass provides holders with unlimited skiing and riding at Coronet Peak and The Remarkables for the 2012 season during standard operating hours of 9am – 4pm. In addition holders are entitled to a $20 discount for adults and $15 discount for youths and seniors on the standard day pass rates at Mt Hutt. The Queenstown Pass includes unlimited Night Skiing at Coronet Peak during the 2011 season on Friday and Saturday nights when available.
- The Remarkables Pass provides holders with unlimited skiing and riding at The Remarkables only for the 2012 season during standard operating hours of 9am – 4pm. The Remarkables pass holders are entitled to a $20 discount for adults and $15 discount for youths and seniors on the standard day pass rates at Coronet Peak and Mt Hutt.
- The Mt Hutt Pass provides holders with unlimited skiing and riding at Mt Hutt only for the 2012 season during standard operating hours of 9am – 4pm. In addition holders are entitled to a $20 discount for adults and $15 discount for youths and seniors on the standard day pass rates at Coronet Peak and The Remarkables.
- The Mt Hutt Midweek Pass provides holders with unlimited skiing and riding, Monday – Friday at Mt Hutt only for the 2012 season during standard operating hours of 9am – 4pm. - The First Tracks add-on provides access to the Coronet Express lift from 8am – 9am from late June / early July through to late in the 2012 season. The operation of First Tracks is subject to the availability and operation of the lifts and to snow & weather conditions. Access to trails will be subject to operational requirements, weather and snow conditions and any scheduled race/events. Coronet Peak does not guarantee the operation of First Tracks on any particular day.
- The Night Ski add-on provides access to the Coronet Express lift from 4pm – 9pm on designated Night Ski nights at Coronet Peak. The operation of Night Ski is subject to the availability and operation of the lifts and to snow & weather conditions.
- Pass holder conditions as in Part A above also apply.

Age definitions (as at 1 June 2012)

Adult	18 to 64 years (inclusive)
Student	18+ years enrolled full time with a New Zealand or Australian tertiary institution or secondary school. To be considered full time you must attend such institution a minimum of 32 weeks in a calendar year. Student ID and proof of full time status in the form of a letter from the institution to be presented at the time of pass collection. ID card must be in English and include a valid expiry date. ISIC cards not accepted.
Youth	7 – 17 years
Senior	65 – 74 years (proof of age may be required)
Super Senior	75+ years

Child and Super Senior applications

For convenience, we can produce a season pass for children aged six years and under at Coronet Peak and children aged 10 years and under at The Remarkables and Mt Hutt, or Super Seniors aged 75+ years. Both of these groups would normally receive free day lift passes however this pass enables the holder to proceed directly to the lifts and avoid a visit to Guest Services each time you ski. There is a $20 application and card issue fee.
